Direct mail: dead or alive?

In a digital world, direct mail might seem... dull.

But according to the Data & Marketing Association, it's still the most effective form of direct marketing.

Direct mail is alive and well.

Grow your practice with Nexok

Nexok is lead generation software that helps you grow your practice by getting accurate, safe-to-use data from Companies House to target limited companies across the UK via direct mail. With 50+ advanced search filters and credit reports on target businesses, you can ensure you're reaching the right audience, in the right way.

Outsource printing & posting

Leave the hard work to us and get your direct mail campaigns fulfilled for just 95p+VAT per letter - taking care of all your printing and posting requirements.
